

Elise Gard
Elisegard99
elisegard@aol.com
University of Kansas
Day 4 Greener

Benefits of Organic Poster I made

Organic Farms and Gardens in Lawrence Kansas

- What is the name of the farm?
  - Mellowfields Farm
- How far is the farm from your school?
  - It's about 3 miles east of campus
- What products do they offer? Do they offer products besides organic produce, meat, or dairy?
  - They grow mostly vegetables, but also sell microgreens.
  - They don't sell meat or dairy.
  - They're also certified organic
- Where can you buy their products?
  - They give/sell their products to a CSA, sell them at two farmers markets, local restaurants, and to the community coop.
- Would you consider buying their products to support local, organic agriculture?
  - I would definitely buy their products and I have in the past!

- What is the name of the farm?
  - Moon on the Meadow Farm
- How far is the farm from your school?
  - They are about 3 miles east of campus
- What products do they offer? Do they offer products besides organic produce, meat, or dairy?
  - They sell organic produce and also flower bouquets. They are certified organic.
- Where can you buy their products?
  - They sell their produce through a CSA, at the local coop, to local restaurants, and at the Lawrence Farmers Market.
- Would you consider buying their products to support local, organic agriculture?
  - Yes! I would and I have. Her bouquets are beautiful.

- What is the name of the farm?
  - Growing Food Growing Health
- How far is the farm from your school?
  - It's about a mile west of campus.
- What products do they offer? Do they offer products besides organic produce, meat, or dairy?

- They grow vegetables and also have an orchard with apples and pears. They are not certified organic because they don't sell their produce but they are organic.
- Where can you buy their products?
  - They don't sell their produce.
  - They donate everything they grow to a local food bank called Just Food.
- Would you consider buying their products to support local, organic agriculture?
  - No, because I'm not food insecure.
- Fun Fact:
  - I've worked with this project for six years and we used to sell the produce and just started donating to Just Food this year so that families can get fresh, local, organic, perfect produce who typically wouldn't get that opportunity.