HIKE WITH ME

at the Celery Bog!

INTENTION

My hike was goal-directed by my intention that I wrote before: relax. A lot of times, I do not sit back and enjoy the beautiful things around me. I often get caught up in all the work that I have to do, so I wanted this hike to be a time for me to absorb my surroundings and relax.

Overall, the hike was very relaxing and I was able to achieve my goal of relaxing because of the beautiful autumn colors!

MY PLAN

My mom and I were mostly able to stick to the plan! There were some people that did not social distance, so we left those areas and wore masks. It was nice to have such a thorough plan that I could stick to.

Lulu got tired half-way through, so I started to carry her! After stopping for a drink of water, she wanted to give me kisses. There weren't many animals, which Lulu seemed to be disappointed about, but she did get to see other dogs!

MY CONNECTION

This hike was an amazing experience for me. I was able to put my mind at ease through focusing on nature: from the falling leaves to kisses with Lulu. I am so grateful to have access to an amazing nature center like the Celery Bog. This experience made me closer to the Earth through the positive experience I had. I also felt so close to my mom and Lulu during and after the hike! This experience motivates me even more to fight for ALL people to have access to nature like I do.

Even though the Celery Bog is not a bog and does not even contain celery (ironic I know), the water is still lovely to gaze at through various openings along the trails.

GO ON AN ADVENTURE
at a local park!

My adventure allowed me to relax and consider my new motivations for fighting for access to nature for ALL.
