hoards of people in tailored suits
sitting primly in fancy meetings (agendas full with words upon words)
to simply spout off a No.

and as the birds cry out please please please (why can they not hear?)
and the Ocean and the Trees and the Sky and the Sea
please please please?

No.

and as the world's children wail begging for someone to hear for nothing but a world (to grow up in)
please please please?

No.

But the day has come
Where you and I and all and someone Link arms. Join hearts.

We do not need a suit to say YES.
