- ❖ Chili bags: Instead of buying little bags of chili, I can start to cultivate my own chili tree and make my own hot sauce in a natural way.
- ❖ Banana, potato, zucchini, plantain peels, cilantro, egg shells: I could give them another use by making a compost. Then it can be use to fertilize my plants and my chili tree

What will I do to incorporate more reusable products into my daily routine?

I can do my own art with inorganic things, like caps, corks. I could make earrings, bracelets, garden decorations, etc.

Personally, in my family, we always try to give a second life to the plastic we use, like making butterflies using plastic bottles, then we paint them and put them in our garden or my room. Likewise, we use old cables, we fix them and decorate them and then make frames for photos or paintings.

Those are just a few examples of how I have incorporated reusable products in my life and I'm still looking for more creative things to do with this in the future.
