

Project Green Challenge

- Silkly Woven
- 🕢 Priyanshi Nandini Rishika

Rajwadu

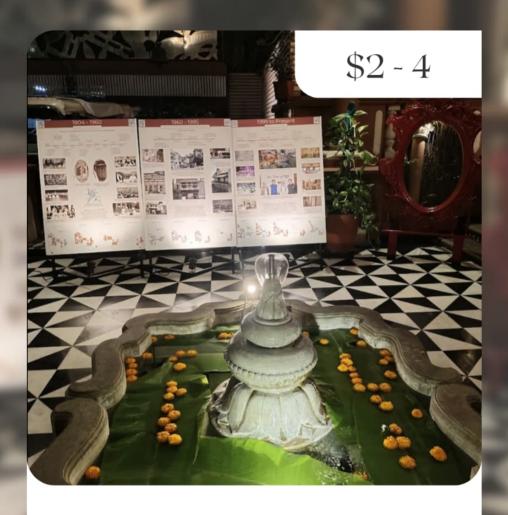

Rajwadu (A Unit of Seetavallabha Ram LLP), known for its traditional Indian and Gujarati culture has welcomed many affluent personalities. These well-known personalities had a hearty Gujarati thali meal with their fans at Rajwadu amongst lush green surroundings.

La Maison

The cafe sources ingredients from local organic farms, which allows to keep high quality standards. The sugar free, raw vegan and gluten free options menu changes daily according to harvest, just like at home.

The Green House

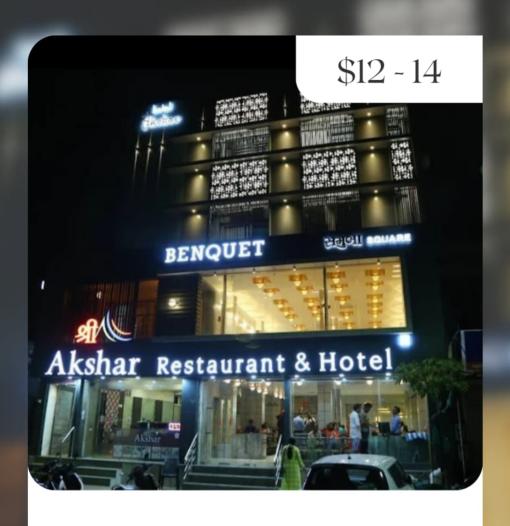

The food here is cooked in front of you in an open kitchen. It is a perfect breakfast and supper place for freshly cooked traditional Indian and International comfort food, snacks, cold pressed fresh juices and homemade ice-creams.

Shree Akshar Restaurent

Shree Akshar Restaurent is vegetarian's delight. They serve all kind of Indian traditional and authentic vegetarian delicacies. The restaurant serves with utmost hospitality.

The Nature's Palette

The Nature's Palette is a super store for super healthy things. Shift to a chemical free & preservative free lifestyle with their wide range of organic and natural products in food, personal care, baby care, home care & cosmetic space.

Ahmedabad Farmer's Market

This is not just about promoting organic food consumption but also about getting back to our roots and eating and consuming local. Some 10 farmers from Ahmedabad, Kutch, Rajkot and Bhavnagar were part of the event, where they got to retail their products be it vegetables or grains or pulses

